

RCW 10.14.040 strictly limits the circumstances in which a petition may be brought against a child under the age of 18. Subsection (7) provides:

The parent or guardian of a child under the age of eighteen may petition in superior court for an order of protection to restrain a person under the age of eighteen years from contact with that child only in cases where the person to be restrained has been adjudicated of an offense against the child protected by the order, or is under investigation or has been investigated for such an offense.

The term investigate is defined as follows: to observe or study by close examination and systematic inquire; to make a systematic examination; especially to conduct an official inquiry. The police department's passive receipt of a complaint does not amount to an investigating.
